

PUBLISHER'S NOTE TO SUBSCRIBERS

Dear Subscriber

The World according to GAAP-40 Revision Services on

We take pleasure in enclosing Revision Service 40 for this publication.

For over 20 years Generally Accepted Accounting Practice ('GAAP') has been the definitive work in accounting practice and we are proud to have you as our subscribers.

Forty Revision Services marks a mature publication that has been tried and trusted over the years. GAAP provides comprehensive coverage of the South African viewpoints on IAS and IFRS and unrivalled analysis and interpretation for the South African practice.

For the next 40 Revision Services we'll have to try and make best better.

Supplementary Binder

In time for this 'anniversary' Service, and as indicated in our last note, we are issuing a supplementary binder with this service to accommodate the grown content.

Chapters 1 to 21 are of more generic content and will remain in the main binder. The supplementary binder, commencing with chapter 22, contains the chapters dealing with more specialised applications.

The index and the newly issued Edcon Annual Report go at the back of the supplementary binder. For details kindly refer to your key and filing instructions

First prize for Specimen Financial Statements

Included in this service are new specimen financial statements, but not just any financial statements:

The Edgars Consolidated Annual Report 2006 has just won the 2006 ICASA/JSE/motiv Award for best Annual Report.
